

PRIVACY POLICY

Protecting the privacy of our students is very important to us. We will never share any personal /confidential information we collect on your child(ren) with third parties.

No third parties have access to information we collect on your child(ren).

We collect only the information necessary to enable us to be able to contact you and your child(ren) including phone numbers, addresses, and emails, and information related to your child's (children's) health and age. We collect this information on our online registration forms and, if used, on our hardcopy registration forms.

We will not share personal/confidential information with other families participating in our workshops, camps and classes.

We will share contact information with other participating families with your permission.

You have the right to review your child's (children's) personal information, the right to direct us to delete it, and the right to refuse to allow us to collect any additional information or to use the information we already have. To exercise your rights contact us directly at info@talktothecamera.com or 720.996.0894.

By agreeing to our media/release waiver, you are waiving certain rights related to your child's (children's) images. As stated in the media/release waiver, we will only use those images to produce the class/workshop/camp video, and we may use those images in our marketing materials.
